

Executive Overview

MAN-AR Canada Inc. is a Canada-registered project sourcing and supply coordination company specializing in industrial, railway, and environmental infrastructure components. The company operates with an engineering-informed approach, providing structured, compliance-aware procurement coordination for project-driven supply requirements.

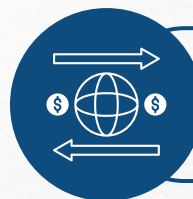

Core Focus Areas

Engineered systems supply support

Industrial and railway component sourcing

Cross-border trade and compliance management

Environmental process and infrastructure equipment coordination

Geographic Scope

Canada-based operations (Ottawa, ON) with North American supplier network focus and international project supply coordination capability.

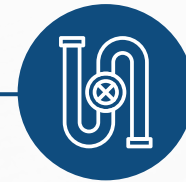

Product Scope (Project-Based)

Industrial mechanical and electro-mechanical systems

Railway rolling stock and transport-related components

Water and wastewater infrastructure components

Maintenance and replacement parts

Environmental process equipment

Value Proposition

Reliable engineering-informed sourcing partner offering structured procurement, supplier-aligned commercial positioning, and compliance-aware cross-border coordination.

